Scott Campbell

is very proud of his hugging skills. He has been hugging since he was a baby. He has hugged many people, books, and pillows. During his nonhugging time, he draws pictures for children's books like Zombie in Love by Kelly DiPucchio and If Dogs Run Free by Bob Dylan. This is the first book that he has written and illustrated! Right now, he is most likely hugging something in New York City. Scott encourages you to hug this book.
