

Rhyme Time

Invite your students to look at other images in the book, such as tree, bird, flower, bowl, then come up with rhymes of their own.

It can be a tickly thing.
Every bird has them.
It rhymes with weather.

FEATHER

You might like one when you're sad,
or happy, or any time at all!
It rhymes with bug.

HUG

It's fun to take a bath with lots of these.
It rhymes with troubles.

BUBBLES

It's a sweet fruit that grows on a tree.
It rhymes with tango.

MANGO

It's the part of the body
you use to hear.
It rhymes with near.

EAR

When you're feeling blue,
you'll be lucky to have one.
It rhymes with end.

FRIEND

Find How To Cheer Up a Friend written by Stephanie Calmenson, illustrated by Shannon McNeill at you library or anywhere books are sold.

Opposites

Who's out? Who's in?

Who's happy? Who's sad?

Who's big? Who's small?

Who's up? Who's down?

Find How To Cheer Up a Friend written by Stephanie Calmenson, illustrated by Shannon McNeill at you library or anywhere books are sold.

Count and Color

Count the mangoes. Then color the picture the way you like best!

Mangoes are a sweet and delicious fruit.

They come in different colors, shapes, and sizes.

Do elephants eat mangoes?

Yes, they do!

How many mangoes are on this tree?

ANSWER: 20

Find How To Cheer Up a Friend written by Stephanie Calmenson, illustrated by Shannon McNeill at you library or anywhere books are sold.

LET IT ALL OUT! Elephant is feeling _____ today.

What kind of colors and shapes will you use to show how Elephant is feeling?

Find How To Cheer Up a Friend written by Stephanie Calmenson, illustrated by Shannon McNeill at your library or anywhere books are sold.

