

COLOR IN COCO AND BEAR!

SPEAK YOUR HEART  BY APRYL STOTT

At the end of the story, Coco, Bear, and their friends agreed to combine their ideas to create something beautiful. Using a pencil, sketch your own snow fort castle and then color it in!

A large rectangular area enclosed by a red dotted line, intended for a child to draw and color their own snow fort castle.

Coco and Bear are best friends. Coco is brave and shares kindness whenever she can, and Bear is shy but has a big heart. With an adult's help, follow the instructions and make your own best friend cut-outs!

---

1. Color in Coco and Bear.
2. Cut on the dotted blue line to create two cut-out best friends to play with!

GOOD LISTENER CHECKLIST!

Together, Coco, Bear, and their friends learned that we can all speak our hearts one voice at a time. Try using this checklist to make sure you're being a good listener, then add your own ideas at the end!

---

I Am a Good Listener When I...

- Ask my friends to share their ideas
- Stop and listen when others speak
- Think before I share
- Include everyone's ideas
- Learn something new

Good Listener Suggestion!

Find an item to pass around. When the speaker is holding it, everyone gives them their attention and listens quietly. Once the speaker is finished, pass it along and keep sharing.
