

BRAINSTORM YOUR MYSTERY

Did Space Case the Graphic Novel make you want to write your own mystery graphic novel story? We had a feeling that would be the case, so here are some tools to help you create an EXTRAORDINARY one!

To get started, read the prompts below and answer them however you'd like. Don't worry about being perfect—this is just to help you get your ideas out of your head and onto the page.

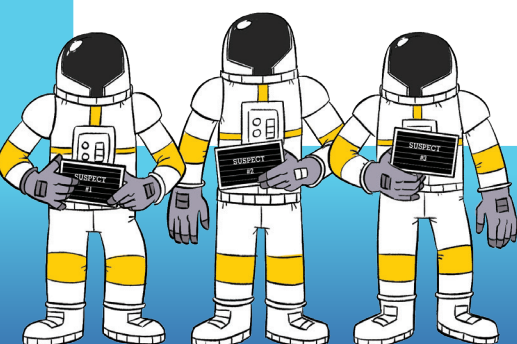

WHO IS YOUR DETECTIVE? (NAME, AGE, WHAT MAKES THEM SPECIAL?)

WHAT IS THE MYSTERY? (IS THERE SOMETHING OR SOMEONE MISSING? A STRANGE OCCURRENCE?)

WHO ARE THE SUSPECTS? DESCRIBE THEM!

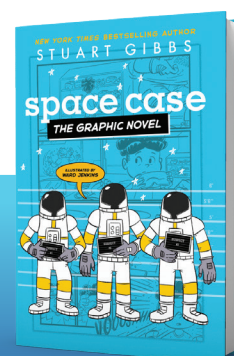

WHAT CLUES WILL YOUR DETECTIVE FIND? (A CRYPTIC NOTE? A MISSING ITEM?)

HOW DOES THE MYSTERY GET SOLVED? (A SURPRISE TWIST? A CLEVER CLUE?)

space case THE GRAPHIC NOVEL
BY STUART GIBBS

Experience the Moon Base Alpha series in full color!

SIMON & SCHUSTER
Books for Young Readers

The image shows a worksheet for the book "space case THE GRAPHIC NOVEL" by Stuart Gibbs. At the top, the title "PIECING IT TOGETHER" is written in a bold, yellow, sans-serif font against a blue background featuring faint cartoon drawings of children in a laboratory setting. Below the title, a large white rectangular area contains numerous horizontal lines for writing. To the left of this area, a vertical strip of blue contains a cartoon illustration of three astronauts in white suits with yellow accents, each holding a tablet displaying "SUSPECT A". In the center of the bottom section, there is a small illustration of a blue rocket ship with a yellow flame trail. To the right of the rocket, the text "space case THE GRAPHIC NOVEL BY STUART GIBBS" is displayed in a mix of blue and black fonts. Further to the right is a small image of the book's cover, which mirrors the astronaut theme. In the bottom right corner, the Simon & Schuster logo and the text "Books for Young Readers" are visible.

[illegible]

Experience the Moon Base Alpha series in full color!

SKETCH YOUR MYSTERY

This page is all about drawing! If you need more space, a blank sheet of paper will do the trick.

YOUR DETECTIVE

Don't forget to include accessories,
like glasses or funky shoes!

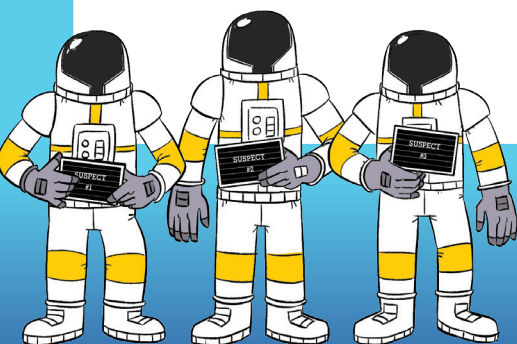

YOUR SUSPECTS

Are they wearing anything strange or unique?

YOUR SETTING

Where does your mystery take place? A school? Park? Museum?

It's time to bring together everything you planned out! Show us your story on the next page. 🖊️

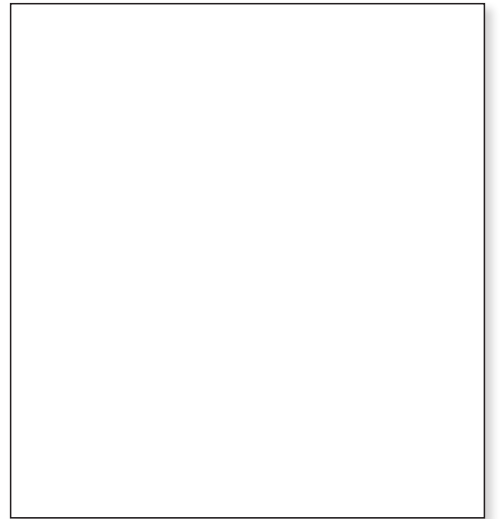

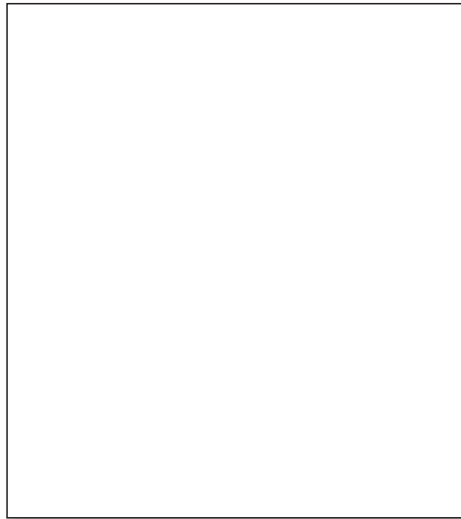

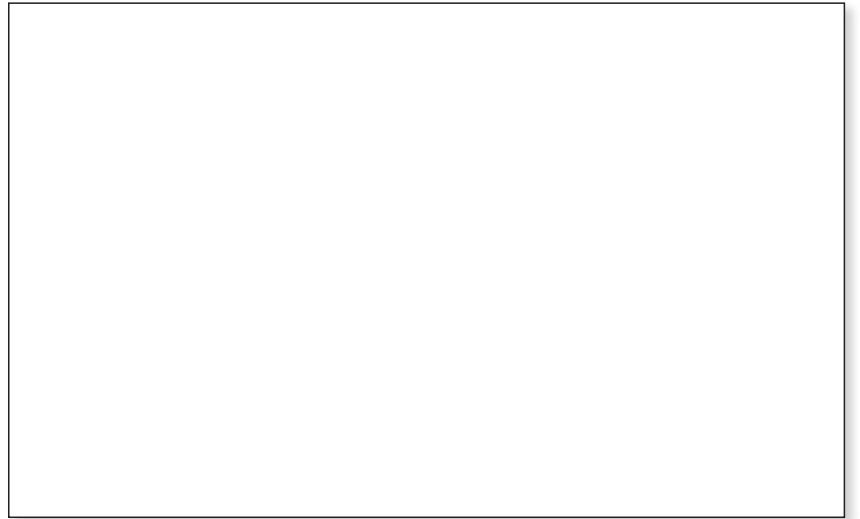

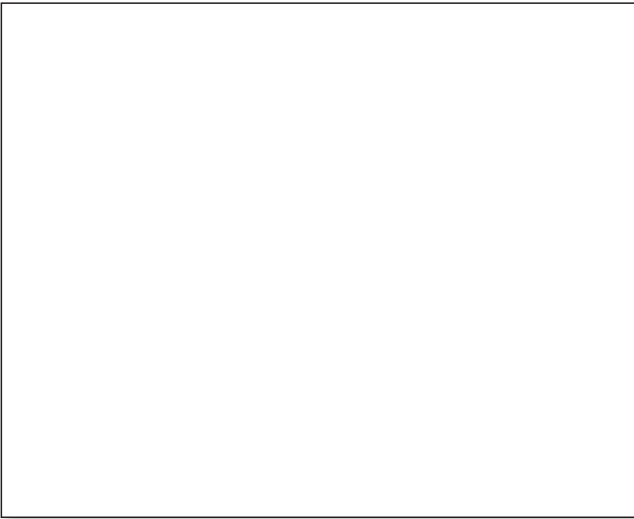

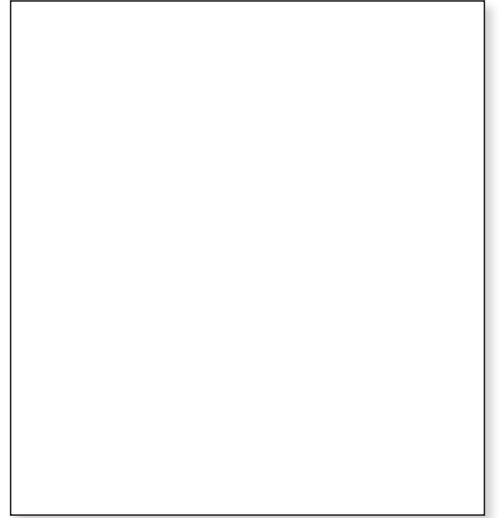

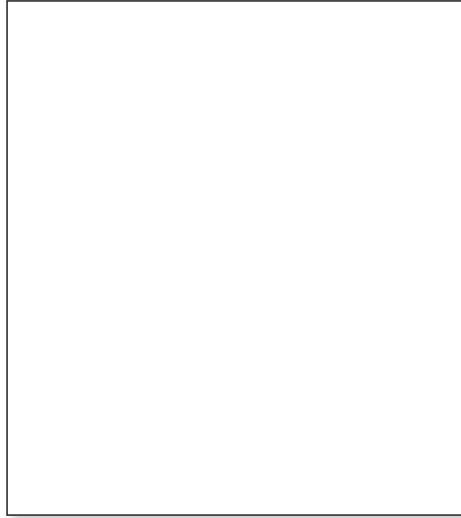

space case THE GRAPHIC NOVEL BY STUART GIBBS

Experience the Moon Base Alpha series in full color!

SIMON & SCHUSTER
Books for Young Readers

YOUR TITLE HERE

BY _____

