"Witty and compelling. . . recalls, contemporizes, and illuminates the classic story from which this fearless first novel takes its inspiration and its shape."

—O, The Oprah Magazine

"Literate and fun, What Happened to Anna K. is an uncommonly ambitious book and one of the year's most amusing reads."

—People

"It takes both chutzpah and talent to successfully rewrite Anna Karenina, and Reyn has both in abundance."

—Entertainment Weekly
(10 Best Fiction Books of 2008)

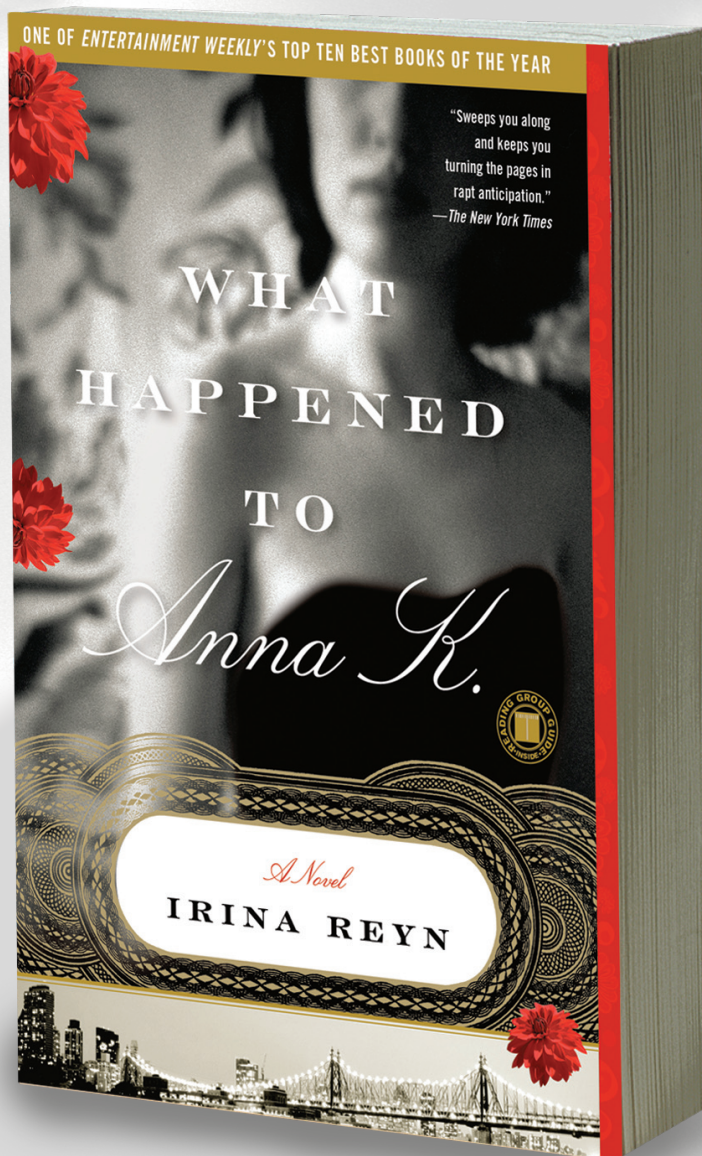

"Reyn's formidable storytelling gift sweeps you along and keeps you turning the pages in rapt anticipation."

—The New York Times Book Review
