

NICE SKULL!

You probably don't think that much about skulls, but everyone's got one!
Draw a line to match each skull to the head it belongs to.

Illustrations © 2019 by Scott Campbell

SKULLS!

By Blair Thornburgh | Illustrated by Scott Campbell

A
atheneum

REPRODUCIBLE

I LOVE MY SKULL!

Skulls are nothing to be scared of—they're just a safe place to keep your brain!
Color in this picture of a skull owner showing hers off.

Illustrations © 2019 by Scott Campbell

SKULLS!

By Blair Thornburgh | Illustrated by Scott Campbell

A
atheneum

REPRODUCIBLE

Ex-SKULL-ent facts !

Can you figure out which of these skull facts are true or false?
Circle the correct answer.

1. Your skull isn't just one bone. It's made up of twenty-two different smaller ones!

TRUE

FALSE

2. The hole in your skull for your nose is called a "nose socket."

TRUE

FALSE

3. The top of your skull is called a "skullcap!"

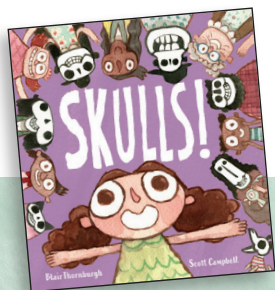

TRUE

FALSE

4. Babies' skulls grow slower than the rest of their bodies.

TRUE

FALSE

Illustrations © 2019 by Scott Campbell

ANSWERS:
1. True.
2. False! It's called a "nasal cavity."
3. True—it's like a cap at the top of your head.
4. False. Babies' skulls grow faster than the rest of their bodies. That's why their heads are so big!

SKULLS!

By Blair Thornburgh | Illustrated by Scott Campbell

A
atheneum

REPRODUCIBLE